STEPS TO SWITCH ACCOUNTS

Step 1: Open CB&S Bank checking account

- Stop by any of our convenient locations and a Customer Service Representative will help you choose the account that is right for your needs.

Step 2: Stop using your account at your previous bank

- Allow at least 10 days for all your checks to clear.
- Destroy checks and deposit slips.
- Destroy your debit or ATM card.

Step 3: Move your direct deposits

- Use the enclosed forms to notify anyone making direct deposits into your account of your new account information.
- Remember to inform your employer, Social Security, other government benefit providers, retirement plans or any other payer making direct deposits into your account.

Step 4: Move any automatic payments

- Use the enclosed forms to notify anyone making automatic withdrawals from your account of your new account information.
- Remember to include insurance drafts, gym dues, online services, automatic utility payments and any other payment types currently being deducted automatically from your account.
- If you have Internet Banking/Bill Pay at your previous bank, ensure that recurring payments are cancelled and re-entered into CB&S Bank's Internet Banking/Bill Pay.

Step 5: Close your old account

- After all checks have cleared, use the enclosed form to notify your previous bank that you are closing your account.
- The bank will send you a check for your remaining balance.
