RUSSELLVILLE, AL — FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CB&S Bank, is pleased to announce that in just 18 months since its launch, CB&S Business Capital, the Asset-Based Lending division of CB&S Bank, has surpassed $200 million in funded outstandings and more than $300 million in credit commitments as of May 31, 2026.

This remarkable growth reflects our team's ability to move quickly, make sound lending decisions, and provide customized financing solutions for businesses across the South. From traditional asset-based borrowers to commercial lender finance companies, CB&S Business Capital continues to expand its reach and impact.

Congratulations to the entire CB&S Business Capital team on this outstanding achievement. We look forward to building on this success and helping even more businesses thrive in the years ahead.

CB&S Business Capital was established in the fourth quarter of 2024. The division provides both direct lending solutions and loan participations in partnership with select asset-based lending (ABL) agent banks.
